

Obituaries

JoAnn Lamp*October 31, 1945 – July 26, 2021*

Lifelong Granby resident JoAnn Lamp, 75, died July 26, 2021 in Joplin after a short illness.

She was born Oct. 31, 1945, in Stella, one of seven children to Joe C. and Mary Wilson Martin.

She was a 1963 graduate of Granby High School.

She worked for the city of Granby for 28 years, including 17 years as City Clerk before retiring in 2010.

She worked in a variety of family businesses, including a service station, a restaurant and guttering companies.

She was named Granby's Honored Citizen during the 2011 Old Mining Town Days celebration.

She served on the city's TIF board, and the board of directors for the Twin Oaks Senior Housing complex.

She was elected to a second term on the Granby City Council in April 2021, representing the South Ward.

She was a member of the First Church of God in Granby.

She married Clinton Lamp on Nov. 3, 1961, and he preceded her in death on July 20, 2015.

Survivors include a son, Mike Lamp of Granby; three grandchildren, Greyson, Taylor and Kennedy Lamp; three sisters, Katherine (Denny) Stipp of Granby, Lois Gilstrap of Granby and Jeannie (Norman) Flink of Neosho; a brother, Paul Dean (Katherine) Martin of Diamond; brothers-in-law Floyd Lamp and Ralph Lamp, both of Granby; and sisters-in-law Patsy Bomstad of Seneca, Martha Whittenburg of Butterfield and Lois Needham of Neosho.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Stacy Jo, and brothers George Martin and James Martin and her parents.

JoAnn Lamp

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, July 29, at the Clark Funeral Home Chapel of Memories in Granby with Pastor Mark Turner officiating.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 5-7 p.m. Wednesday, July 28.

Burial will be at Hazelgreen Cemetery in Boulder City.

Memorial contributions may be made to First Church of God c/o Clark Funeral Home, P.O. Box 26, Granby, MO 64844.

in several area schools. She played piano and was involved in the music program in her church all her life.

She worked at Sale Hospital records department for a time, then worked at La-Z-Boy until her retirement. She then began her favorite career of raising puppies.

She also enjoyed quilting and traveling. Her life was enriched by her wonderful grandchildren, who called her 'Burr'.

Lynn and Dan Sartin were married on February 22, 1969, in Newtonia, and he preceded her in death on February 26, 2016.

Survivors include her children, Fawn Sartin, Derek (Jamie) Sartin, and Tara Sartin; five grandchildren; a great grandson; sister, Cathy (Jim) Sheehy and sister-in-law Lynda (Joey) Holverson.

Along with her husband, Dan, she is preceded in death by her parents, and sister Ann Reynolds.

James Horner Jr.July 27, 1965 – July 18, 2021

James Lee Horner Jr., 55, Granby, died July 18, 2021, in Joplin.

He was born July 27, 1965, in Uma Ariz., the son of James Lee Horner, Sr. and Ellen Gail (Calhoun) Horner.

James graduated high school in 1983, from Blithe, California.

In 1986, he married

Lynn Sartin*Oct. 7, 1946 – July 22, 2021*

Lynn (Reynolds) Sartin, 74, died July 22, 2021 after a short illness.

She was born October

7, 1946, to Curtis and Nellie Jo (Neil) Reynolds.

Lynn spent her growing up years on the family farm north of Newtonia.

She was a member of the last graduation class of Midway School

She attended Southwest Baptist University obtaining a B.A. degree in music. She taught music